A booklet of all the mapping needed to complete the Pennine Way, England's toughest National Trail. Suited to fit experienced walkers, the 426km (265 mile) route from Edale to Kirk Yetholm follows northern England's mountainous spine, passing through three national parks: the Peak District, the Yorkshire Dales and Northumberland.

- The full route line is shown on 1:25,000 OS maps
- The map booklet can be used to walk the trail in either direction
- Sized to easily fit in a jacket pocket
- The relevant extract from the OS Explorer map legend is included
- An accompanying Cicerone guidebook - The Pennine Way is also available, which includes a copy of this map booklet

About the author

Paddy Dillon is a prolific walker and guidebook writer, with over 100 guidebooks to his name and contributions to 40 other titles. He has written for several outdoor magazines and other publications and has appeared on radio and television. Paddy uses a tablet computer to write as he walks. His descriptions are therefore precise, having been written at the very point at which the reader uses them. Paddy is an indefatigable long-distance walker who has walked all of Britain's National Trails and several European trails. He has also walked in Nepal, Tibet, Korea and the Rocky Mountains of Canada and the US.
