Guidebook to St Cuthbert's Way, stretching 100km (62 miles) from Melrose Abbey in the Scottish Borders to Holy Island (Lindisfarne) off the Northumberland coast. The route weaves a path across the Eildon Hills, the Cheviots, the Tweed Valley, part of the Northumberland National Park, as well as the Northumberland Coast AONB, linking several sites associated with the life of St Cuthbert.

- Detailed route descriptions and clear, step-by-step instructions are accompanied by 1:50,000 OS mapping
- Takes a week to walk
- Key information such as transport links, distance and accommodation options
- Unspoilt scenery and a rich history encompassing spectacular castles, medieval abbeys and Roman remains
- Includes a 11½ mile (18.5km) option to continue to Berwick-upon-Tweed on the final stage of the Northumberland Coast Path
