Short Walks Winchester contains 15 of the best short walks in the area, chosen by local expert Malcolm Leatherdale. This compact pocket guide is perfect for those new to walking or to the area and each walk is suitable for everyone to enjoy.

Key marketing points

The guide comes with easy-to-read Ordnance Survey maps, clear route descriptions and lots of images. Also contains information on local history, beauty spots and refreshment stops. Most walks are under 3 hours in length. No challenging terrain or complicated navigation; all you'll need to enjoy these walks is a waterproof jacket and trainers. Most routes are accessible by public transport.

About the author

Malcolm Leatherdale has lived for the past 20 years just a stone's throw away from the River Test the world-renowned iconic chalk stream. He has spent much of his life in Hampshire, particularly Winchester, both as a former student at Peter Symonds College and later as a solicitor. Malcolm is an active cyclist and has also run many marathons including the London Marathon six times. He has written several books and has published other articles on various topics. He hopes that his guidebooks will encourage others of all ages and abilities to experience the delights that come from walking generally and especially around Winchester and central Hampshire.
