Key marketing points

The guide comes with easy-to-read Ordnance Survey maps, clear route descriptions and lots of images. Also contains information on local beauty spots and refreshment stops. All walks are under 3 hours in length and range from 4.5km to 10km. No challenging terrain or complicated navigation; all you'll need to enjoy these walks is a waterproof jacket and trainers. All routes are accessible by public transport.

About the author

Phil Turner lives in the Falmouth area and when not exploring the paths of Cornwall he works as an EMT and Mountain Leader. When this work takes him further afield he soon finds himself longing for the salty air (and pasties) of Cornwall. An active member of West Cornwall Search and Rescue team, Phil spends many wet and windy evenings training the next generation of team members how to use a map and compass.
