A guidebook to 36 walks exploring Northumberland, including the national park, coast, Cheviots, North Pennines and Kielder. The walks cover a wide variety of terrain and include full days on the hills and coast and shorter walks at lower levels, so there is something for everyone.

The walks are graded (although none present any technical difficulties) and accessible from bases such as Alnwick, Rothbury and Hexham. They range from 7 to 21km (4-13 miles) and can be enjoyed in 2-7 hours.

- 1:50,000 OS maps included for each walk
- Highlights include Hadrian's Wall, Lindisfarne Priory, The Cheviot, Berwick and Bamburgh and Dunstanburgh Castles
- Notes on refreshments and public transport
- Background information on the historic remains encountered
- Information on the region's rich geology, history and wildlife

About the author

Vivienne is an award-winning outdoor writer and photographer with an all-consuming love of walking and the great outdoors. A journalist since 1990, she went freelance in 2002, focussing her energies on the activities she loves most - hiking, writing, travel and photography.

Based in north Cumbria since 1996, she has put her intimate knowledge of northern England to good use over the years, writing more than 20 popular walking guidebooks. Her words and images also regularly appear on the pages of national and regional magazines as well as on countless websites, visitor leaflets and guides to nature reserves. Vivienne is a member of the Outdoor Writers and Photographers Guild.
