Short Walks on the Isle of Mull contains 15 of the best short walks in the area, chosen by local expert Terry Marsh. This compact pocket guide is perfect for those new to walking or to the area and each walk is suitable for everyone to enjoy.

Key marketing points

The guide comes with easy-to-read Ordnance Survey maps, clear route descriptions and lots of images. Also contains information on local beauty spots and refreshment stops. Most walks are under 3 hours in length. No challenging terrain or complicated navigation; all you'll need to enjoy these walks is a waterproof jacket and trainers.

About the author

Terry Marsh is an award-winning writer and photographer specialising in travel and the outdoors. He is based in Lancashire but has a long-standing love affair with the Scottish islands. He holds an MA (with Distinction) in Lake District Studies, and a PhD in Historical Geography, and has a keen interest in the history and culture of Scotland's islands.
