Map booklet of the Cleveland Way national trail, a fine 177km (110 mile) walk around the North York Moors National Park.

The booklet of Ordnance Survey 1:25,000 Explorer maps has been designed for convenient use on the trail. It shows the full and up-to-date line of the national trail, along with the relevant extract from the OS Explorer map legend. It can be used when walking the route in either direction.

Conveniently sized for slipping into a jacket pocket or into the top of a rucksack and provides all of the mapping you need to complete the route.

An accompanying Cicerone guidebook - The Cleveland Way and the Yorkshire Wolds Way / 9781852848231 - describes the full route in detail, as well as including the Yorkshire Wolds Way National Trail and the Tabular Hills link route. The guide includes lots of other practical planning and background information, for those who prefer a written guide. NOTE: The accompanying guidebook includes a copy of this map booklet.

About the author

Paddy Dillon is a prolific walker and guidebook writer, with over 100 guidebooks to his name and contributions to 40 other titles. He has written for several outdoor magazines and other publications and has appeared on radio and television. Paddy uses a tablet computer to write as he walks. His descriptions are therefore precise, having been written at the very point at which the reader uses them. Paddy is an indefatigable long-distance walker who has walked all of Britain's National Trails and several European trails. He has also walked in Nepal, China, Korea and the Rocky Mountains of Canada and the US. Paddy is a member of the Outdoor Writers and Photographers Guild and President of the Backpackers Club.
