Would you like to explore the best of the Isle of Skye? This guidebook covers 15 of the best short walks in the area (all under three hours), including the Old Man of Storr, the Quiraing pinnacles, Rubha Hunish and the Fairy Pools.

Why choose this guidebook?

- Easy to moderate walks suitable for almost everyone
- Short climbs but no challenging terrain
- Numbered points which tie OS maps to clear route description
- Facilities, parking and highlights for every route
- Route Summary Table to help you choose your walk

Cicerone's Short Walks guidebooks contain everything you need to get outdoors and discover the best of an area. The routes are perfect if you're new to walking or looking for something you can enjoy with the whole family. Let the adventures begin!

Key marketing points

The guide comes with easy-to-read Ordnance Survey maps, clear route descriptions and lots of images. Also contains information on local beauty spots and refreshment stops. Most walks are under 3 hours in length. No challenging terrain or complicated navigation; all you'll need to enjoy these walks is a waterproof jacket and trainers. All routes are accessible by public transport.

About the author

Terry Marsh is a freelance writer and photographer specialising in travel and the outdoors having written, co-authored or edited more than 100 titles over the years. He has maintained a long-standing love affair with the islands of Scotland, first visiting the Isle of Skye more than 55 years ago in a haze of wonder and excitement. He holds an MA (with Distinction) in Lake District Studies and a PhD in Historical Geography, and has acquired a keen interest in the history and culture of Scotland's islands.
